Last Updated: August 11, 2026

1. Acceptance of Terms

Welcome to paolaandrearodriguez.com (the “Website”). These Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) govern your access to and use of the Website and its content, educational materials, webinars, workshops, live talks, groups, training resources, contact features, newsletters, and other services or resources made available through the Website.

By accessing or using the Website, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms.

If you do not agree with these Terms, please discontinue use of the Website.

2. About the Website

This Website provides information about Paola A. Rodríguez and her professional, educational, and public-facing work involving topics including sexuality, sex therapy, relationships, couples, intimacy, sexual wellness, mental health, professional education, and related subjects.

The Website may provide access to or information about:

- Webinars;
- Live talks and workshops;
- Educational programs;
- Training for clinicians;
- Individual supervision;
- Groups and community programs;
- Support and educational resources for sex workers;
- Book and educational-resource recommendations;
- Newsletters and other communications;
- Consultation requests;
- Intake forms; and
- Links to separate professional therapy services.

Certain services referenced on this Website may be provided through Life Discovery Psychotherapy or another professional practice and may be subject to separate terms, informed-consent documents, financial policies, privacy notices, and professional requirements.

3. Educational Information

Much of the content available through this Website is intended for educational and informational purposes.

Website content may address sexuality, relationships, sexual behavior, sexual trauma, intimacy, sexual wellness, couples therapy, mental health, and other sensitive subjects.

Unless expressly provided within an established professional relationship, Website content does not constitute individualized medical, psychological, psychiatric, therapeutic, or other healthcare advice.

You should not rely upon general Website information as a substitute for evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, or advice from a qualified healthcare professional familiar with your individual circumstances.

4. No Therapist-Client Relationship

Visiting the Website, reading its content, subscribing to communications, attending general educational programming, submitting a contact form, or requesting a consultation does not by itself establish a therapist-client, psychologist-client, counselor-client, physician-patient, or other healthcare provider relationship.

A professional clinical relationship is established only after applicable intake and consent procedures have been completed and the appropriate provider or professional practice has agreed to provide services.

Submitting an intake form or requesting a consultation does not guarantee acceptance as a client.

5. Professional Therapy Services

The Website may direct visitors to Life Discovery Psychotherapy or other resources through which individual, couples, sex-therapy, or related professional services may be available.

Professional clinical services are separate from general use of this Website.

Clinical services may be governed by additional agreements, including:

- Informed consent;
- Telehealth consent;
- Financial policies;
- Cancellation policies;
- Good Faith Estimates;
- Notices of Privacy Practices; and
- Other professional or legally required documentation.

If there is a conflict between these Website Terms and an agreement specifically governing clinical services, the applicable clinical agreement will control with respect to those services.

6. Webinars, Workshops, Live Talks and Educational Programs

The Website may offer or promote webinars, workshops, live talks, groups, professional training, and similar programs.

Participation in an educational program does not ordinarily establish a therapist-client relationship.

Educational programs are not intended to provide individualized diagnosis, psychotherapy, crisis intervention, or medical treatment unless expressly identified otherwise.

Participants should use their own judgment regarding whether particular discussions or materials are appropriate for them.

Some programs may discuss sensitive subjects, including sexuality, sexual trauma, sexual behavior, relationships, intimacy, or other personal matters.

7. Professional Training and Supervision

Certain educational materials, training programs, or supervision services may be intended for clinicians or other professionals.

Participation does not guarantee professional certification, licensure, continuing-education credit, competency, or any particular professional outcome unless expressly stated in writing.

Professionals remain responsible for complying with the laws, ethical requirements, licensing standards, supervision requirements, and standards of care applicable to their own practice.

Educational information should not be interpreted as legal, regulatory, or licensing advice.

8. Sensitive and Sexual Content

This Website openly discusses sexuality, sexual health, sex therapy, sexual behavior, relationships, sexual trauma, sex work, intimacy, and related topics.

Such content is provided within educational, therapeutic, professional, and sex-positive contexts.

Users are responsible for determining whether Website content is appropriate for them.

The presence of discussions concerning sexual subjects should not be interpreted as an offer of sexual services or sexually explicit entertainment.

9. Support for Sex Workers and Related Educational Content

The Website may provide educational information, workshops, groups, consulting, or supportive resources intended for sex workers or individuals working in adult-content industries.

Such information is intended to support mental wellness, boundaries, relationships, professional well-being, and related educational objectives.

Nothing on the Website constitutes legal, tax, employment, financial, or business advice concerning sex work or adult-content businesses.

Users remain responsible for complying with applicable laws and regulations.

10. Consultation and Contact Requests

The Website may allow visitors to submit their name, email address, message, or other information to request information or an initial consultation.

Submitting such information does not guarantee an appointment or establish a professional relationship.

Do not use general Website contact forms to communicate emergencies or highly sensitive clinical information.

11. Emergency Situations

The Website, contact forms, email, newsletters, webinars, and other public Website communication channels are not emergency or crisis-response services.

Electronic communications may not be reviewed immediately.

Do not use the Website to request emergency medical or mental-health assistance.

If you believe you or another individual is experiencing an immediate medical or mental-health emergency or is in immediate danger, seek appropriate emergency assistance.

12. Good Faith Estimates

Individuals seeking qualifying healthcare services may have rights concerning Good Faith Estimates under applicable federal law.

Where applicable, information concerning Good Faith Estimates may be provided separately from these Terms.

A Good Faith Estimate is an estimate based upon information available at the time it is prepared and is not necessarily a guarantee of the final cost of services.

13. Newsletter and Communications

Users may have the option to subscribe to newsletters, educational communications, announcements, workshops, videos, or similar content.

By voluntarily subscribing, you consent to receive the communications for which you registered.

You may unsubscribe from marketing or newsletter communications using an available unsubscribe mechanism or by contacting the sender.

Communications concerning an existing professional relationship may be subject to different requirements.

14. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise indicated, original Website content—including text, articles, educational materials, graphics, logos, photographs, videos, webinar materials, presentations, training materials, branding, downloads, and Website design—is owned by or licensed to Paola A. Rodríguez and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

Website materials may be accessed for personal, non-commercial informational purposes unless otherwise specified.

You may not reproduce, republish, distribute, sell, commercially exploit, modify, record, redistribute, or create derivative works from protected Website materials without prior authorization, except as permitted by law.

Purchase or registration for a webinar, workshop, training program, or educational resource does not transfer ownership of the underlying intellectual property.

15. Recording of Programs

Unless expressly authorized, users may not record, reproduce, livestream, redistribute, or publicly share webinars, workshops, live talks, training sessions, supervision sessions, or other protected programming.

Separate recording or participation rules may apply to particular programs.

16. User Conduct

You agree not to:

- Use the Website for unlawful purposes;
- Attempt unauthorized access to Website systems;
- Introduce malware or harmful code;
- Interfere with Website functionality;
- Impersonate another person;
- Submit fraudulent information;
- Harass other participants;
- Violate another person's privacy;
- Infringe intellectual-property rights; or
- Systematically scrape or reproduce Website content without authorization.

17. Third-Party Websites and Resources

The Website may contain links to third-party websites, social-media platforms, books, educational materials, scheduling systems, payment services, videos, or other resources.

These third parties operate independently and may maintain their own terms and privacy policies.

The inclusion of a link or recommendation does not necessarily constitute an endorsement of every statement, product, service, or practice associated with the third party.

18. Book and Resource Recommendations

Books, articles, videos, products, websites, or other resources may be recommended for informational or educational purposes.

Recommendations do not guarantee that a particular resource will be appropriate for every individual.

Users should exercise their own judgment when purchasing or relying upon recommended resources.

19. No Guarantee of Results

Educational programs, therapy-related information, professional training, workshops, groups, or other Website resources cannot guarantee specific personal, relationship, clinical, professional, financial, or therapeutic results.

Individual experiences vary substantially.

Testimonials or examples, if presented, should not be interpreted as guarantees that another person will experience similar outcomes.

20. Website Availability and Accuracy

Reasonable efforts may be made to maintain accurate Website information; however, content may contain errors or become outdated.

Programs, prices, schedules, professional information, availability, services, laws, clinical standards, and other information may change.

Website content may be modified, removed, or updated at any time.

Continuous or error-free Website availability is not guaranteed.

21. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Website and its general educational content are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis.

No warranty is made that Website information will be complete, continuously available, error-free, or suitable for every individual's circumstances.

Nothing in this section limits obligations that cannot legally be excluded.

22. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Paola A. Rodríguez and associated businesses, employees, contractors, representatives, and service providers will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages resulting from general use of or reliance upon this Website.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to waive professional obligations or liability that cannot lawfully be waived.

These Website limitations should not be interpreted as altering duties that may separately arise within an established professional healthcare relationship.

23. Indemnification

To the extent permitted by law, users agree to indemnify and hold harmless Paola A. Rodríguez and associated businesses, employees, contractors, and representatives from claims or damages arising from unlawful use of the Website, violation of these Terms, or infringement of another person's rights.

24. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by applicable laws of the United States and the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-law principles.

Nothing in these Terms eliminates rights or protections that cannot legally be waived.

25. Changes to These Terms

These Terms may be revised periodically.

Revised Terms may be posted to the Website with an updated “Last Updated” date.

Continued use of the Website after revised Terms are published constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms to the extent permitted by applicable law.

26. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain effective to the fullest extent permitted by law.
